MISCELLANEOUS TEAM NOTES

REVS-CHIVAS USA SWAP MIDFIELDERS

On Wednesday, the Revolution traded club captain Shalrie Joseph to Chivas USA in exchange for midfielder Blair Gavin, Chivas USA's natural second-round selection in the 2013 MLS SuperDraft and allocation money ... Joseph, 34, departed the Revolution after almost 10 years of service with the club ... originally drafted by the Revs in the second round of the 2002 MLS SuperDraft out of St. John's (NY) University, he signed with the club ahead of the 2003 season and spent the next 10 seasons as the club's anchor in the central midfield ... he was the Revolution's captain since 2009 ... Gavin, 23, is in his third professional season after Chivas USA drafted him 10th overall in the 2010 MLS SuperDraft out of the University of Akron ... a defensive midfielder, Gavin has made 43 career appearances, including 31 starts for the Goats ... he's scored three goals and added five assists.

GILLETTE STADIUM DOUBLE HEADER ON SATURDAY

Italian giant AC Milan will meet Honduran power Olimpia at Gillette Stadium on Saturday at 4:30 p.m. ET ... the two teams will meet in the first game of a special doubleheader that will see the previously-scheduled match between the host New England Revolution and Sporting Kansas City in the second game at 7:30 p.m. ET ... it is the first multiple-game event at Gillette Stadium since a triple header on July 11, 2009 … for ticket information, visit revolutionsoccer.net.

VOTE SAER SENE FOR "GOAL OF THE WEEK"

Saer Sene's blast from distance on Sunday in Philadelphia is now a nominee for AT&T "Goal of the Week" honors ... Sene scored the Revs' lone goal against the Union in the 12th minute ... fans have until midnight Thursday to cast their votes online at MLSsoccer.com or text "G5" to 22442 ... this is the second time Sene has been nominated for the weekly award as he was a finalist following his first minute goal against Portland on March 24.

GOALS NEEDED AGAINST SPORTING KC

The Revs will meet Kansas City for the third time this season and are hoping to score their first goal against their Eastern Conference foe … in the two previous meetings this season, the Revs have been held scoreless – a 3-0 loss on March 17, and a 0-0 draw on July 21 – both at Livestrong Sporting Park … Kansas City is the only team to shut the Revs out twice this year … Rajko Lekic scored the Revs last goal scored against KC on July 30, 2011, at Livestrong Sporting Park.

AN UP AND DOWN RUN AGAINST KC

New England is 2-6-3 in their last 11 regular-season meetings against Kansas City … prior to the current stretch of 11 games, New England had won three straight games against Kansas City from Aug. 2, 2007 to April 9, 2008 ... KC's name change ahead of the 2011 season has actually helped improve the Revs' performance against the club, however, as New England has picked up points in three out of the teams' last four meetings.

LOTS OF RED FOR TEAMS WITH PRIMARY COLOR OF BLUE

The Revolution and Sporting have had a tenuous recent history in the disciplinary department … in seven of the team's last 10 meetings overall – including one game in SuperLiga 2009 – at least one player from either team has been ejected … in each of the team's four meetings in 2009 – three in the MLS regular-season and one in SuperLiga – a player was sent off: Emmanuel Osei (June 13), Michael Videira (June 24), Lance Watson (July 11) and Shalrie Joseph (Sept. 5) … while the two meetings in 2010 were red-free, both games in 2011 saw players sent to the showers early: Birahim Diop (April 23, originally called on Aurelien Collin during the game but later changed by MLS because of mis-identification) and A.J. Soares (July 30) … and already earlier this year, Stephen McCarthy was shown red on March 17 ... the July 21 meeting in KC was the first time since 2010 both teams finished with 11 players on the field.

WINLESS STREAK NOW AT FOUR

Following Sunday night's defeat, the Revs are now winless (0-3-1) in their last four matches – the team's longest winless streak of the season … the Revs defeated New York, 2-0, on July 8, in the first game of the month, but finished July with a 1-3-1 record … previously, the Revs suffered a pair of three-game winless streaks: three consecutive losses in the month of April and three straight draws from June 16 to June 30.

IT WAS A JULY SCORING SLUMP

In the five games in July, the Revs went 1-3-1 and had a scoring average of 0.80 goals per game … the team opened the month against New York (July 8) with a 2-0 win, its ninth multiple-goal game of the season, but scored just two additional goals in the month: a Lee Nguyen strike in the 2-1 loss to Montreal on July 18 and a Saer Sene goal on Sunday at Philadelphia.

TRIO OF HOME GAMES IN AUGUST

With the Revs firmly into the second-half of the season, the team has a strong chance to secure points with three home matches this month ... the first two weeks of the month will include visits from Kansas City (Saturday) and the first-ever home match against Montreal (Aug. 12) ... following the game against the Impact, the Revs will depart for back-to-back road games (at Chicago on Aug. 18; at Columbus on Aug. 25) before returning home for a three-game homestand (in eight days) beginning July 29 against Chivas USA.

CONFERENCE POINTS ON THE TABLE AT HOME

Unable to secure a win on the road against Eastern Conference opponents this year (0-5-2), the Revs return to Gillette Stadium on Saturday where they've had success against conference opponents ... the Revs are 2-2-2 at home in Eastern Conference titls and have lost just one game at home -- a 1-0 loss to Toronto on July 14 -- since the beginning of June ... overall this year, the Revs have picked up points in eight of their 10 home matches, posting a 5-2-3 record at Gillette Stadium.

GOALS COME EASY AT HOME...

The Revs return home on Saturday and hope their home scoring ways continue … in 10 home games this year, the Revs have scored 16 goals while conceding just nine, a +7 goal differential at Gillette Stadium …the team has scored more than 60 percent (16-of-26, 61.2 percent) of its season goal total in Foxborough.

...AND THE SCORING BEGINS EARLY, TOO

If trends should continue, fans should expect an early goal at Gillette Stadium on Saturday ... in two of the last three home games, the Revs have scored in the first 25 minutes of the match to take an early 1-0 lead ... Saer Sene scored a 12th-minute goal in the 2-2 draw on June 30 against Seattle before Lee Nguyen scored the eventual game-winner in the 24th-minute against New York on July 8 ... a total of five times this season, the Revs have scored a goal at home within the first 10 minutes of kickoff.

COSTLY PENALTY KICKS AGAINST

On Sunday - for the second time in three games – the Revs conceded a penalty kick … Montreal's Patrice Bernier gave Montreal an early 1-0 lead on July 18, before Philadelphia's Freddy Adu scored from the spot on Sunday night to level the game at 1-1 … in both games, the Revs later conceded a second goal en route to a 2-1 losses … prior to the match in Montreal, the Revs had not conceded a penalty kick attempt in the team's first 18 games of the season.

TOUGH RESULTS IN ONE-GOAL GAMES

Sunday night's 2-1 loss was the Revs 10th defeat of the season, and ninth loss in a one-goal game … the Revs are 2-9-0 this year in 11 one-goal games, and have dropped their last five one-goal contests dating back to a 2-1 loss on May 5 at Salt Lake … the 3-0 loss to Kansas City on March 17 remains the Revs' only defeat of the season by more than one goal.

RARE SECOND-HALF CONCESSIONS

Although the Revs conceded two second-half goals on Sunday, the team remains tough to score against after the halftime whistle … the Revs have allowed a league-low 10 goals in the second half, and have a league-best 0.48 goals against average in the final 45 minutes … the team has allowed just three second-half goals in its last nine games dating back to June 2 against Chicago.

JERRY'S HOT START IN LONDON

Revolution forward Jerry Bengtson enters this week leading all Olympic scorers with three goals in two starts for the Honduras Olympic Team ... after signing with the Revs on July 5, Jerry Bengtson departed on July 16 to join the Honduran squad … Bengtson scored the team's two goals -- including a penalty kick goal -- in the 2-2 draw in the opening match against Morocco on July 26 … Bengtson then scored the game-winning goal in the 1-0 upset win against gold-medal favorite Spain on July 29 ... before departing for the Olympics, Bengtson made two substitute appearances and scored a goal in his first-ever MLS game on July 8.

SAER RETURNS TO SCORING WAYS

Saer Sene scored his team-leading ninth goal of the season on Sunday – his first since June 30 against Seattle … Sene's nine goals are the team's most in a season since Taylor Twellman scored 16 in 2007 … with his goal on Sunday, Sene has scored in each month of the season except April as the Frenchman scored twice in March, five times in May and once each in June and July.

SAER MAKING A NAME FOR HIMSELF IN REVS HISTORY

With nine goals this season, Saer Sene has emerged as the team's leading scorer despite his newcomer status … in 20 appearances, Sene became the first player since Taylor Twellman in 2007 to record more than eight goals in a season ... the season-high goal scorers since the beginning of the 2008 season are below:

Year	Name	Goals Scored
2007	Taylor Twellman	16
2008	Steve Ralston, Taylor Twellman	8
2009	Kheli Dube, Shalrie Joseph	8
2010	Marko Perovic	6
2011	Shalrie Joseph	8
2012	Saer Sene	9

SENE'S SEVEN SHOTS ON SUNDAY
Saer Sene took seven shots in Sunday night's match at Philadelphia … while only three of those shots were on frame – including one for an 12th-minute goal – a player having seven shots is an infrequent occurrence for the Revs … the last Revolution player to record seven or more shots in a game was Taylor Twellman on Oct. 16, 2008, in a 2-1 loss to D.C. – a stretch of 115 games since.

YOUNG KELYN'S HELPING WAYS
Kelyn Rowe recorded his third assist of his rookie season on Sunday night when he fed Saer Sene's 12th-minute goal … Rowe – who was drafted third overall in the 2012 SuperDraft – became the first rookie since James Riley in 2005 to record three assists in his first professional season … Riley recorded one goal and three assists in 23 games in his rookie year, while Rowe has two goals and three assists through 17 appearances in 2012.

ROWE DOING ALL HE CAN
The Revs have scored just two goals in their last three games, but rookie Kelyn Rowe has provided the assist on both of the Revolution's goals … both of Rowe's assists in this recent have been on long-distance strikes … Lee Nguyen scored the Revs' lone-goal on July 18 at Montreal on a ball from Rowe, before the UCLA product assisted Saer Sene's blast at Philadelphia on Sunday.

DIMITRY'S DEBUTS
Dimitry Imbongo made his MLS – and Revolution – debuts when he checked into the game in on Sunday night … Imbongo became the 13th Revolution player this season to make an MLS debut with the Revolution … Imbongo, 22, was signed by the Revolution on July 16 and joined the team for his first training session on Tuesday, July 24.

YOUNG GUYS OFTEN GETTING THE CHANCE
Jay Heaps has put 25-year old Saer Sene in the starting lineup at forward 16 times this season, but Heaps has also given some of the even younger guys a chance to impress at forward ... the Revs youngest player, Diego Fagundez (17) has appeared in eight games (including one start) and scored one goal ... Dimitry Imbongo (22) made his debut as a substitute on Sunday while second-year player Blake Brettschneider (23) has seen the second-most action at forward, making nine starts in 14 appearances as a striker and recording two goals and an assist.

ALSTON HITS THE CENTURY MARK IN STARTS
Kevin Alston recorded his 100th start in his 100th appearance on Sunday night in Philadelphia … Alston, 24, became the first player drafted in the first round of the 2009 MLS SuperDraft to record 100 appearances and starts … among 2009's drafted players, LA's Omar Gonzalez (89 appearances) and AJ DeLaGarza (87 appearances) rank second and third, respectively, in appearances … Alston made 26 starts in his rookie season, 22 starts in 2010, and 33 starts in 2011.

TIERNEY NEXT IN LINE
While Kevin Alston made his 100th appearance in Philadelphia, his backline teammate Chris Tierney is the next in line to potentially hit the century mark … Tierney enters the weekend with 94 appearances – including 88 starts – and if he remains healthy, would reach his 100th appearance when the Revs host the Union on September 1.

ONE-STRIKER FORMATION IN LAST THREE
After using a two-striker formation in nine straight games from May 12 against Colorado through June 14 against Toronto, Jay Heaps has used Ryan Guy as a lone-striker in the last three matches ... in those, Saer Sene has made three appearances -- including two starts -- at right wing after making 16 starts at forward ... Jay Heaps has used a two-forward setup in 16 out of the 21 games this year.

THREE STRAIGHT FOR GUY, MATCHES 2011 TOTALS FOR APPEARANCES
Ryan Guy made his third straight start at forward on Sunday in Philadelphia and fourth overall up top this season ... in 11 appearances, including nine starts, Guy has also seen time at right wing (three starts), central midfield (two starts) left midfield and right back ... Guy's 11 appearances also match his season-high from 2011 when he made six starts on the left and right wings after joining the team in early June.

CONTINUING TO STRIKE BACK AFTER ATTACKING SHUTOUT
The Revolution has been shut out seven times this season, but the last six times the team has been held scoreless, the squad has come back to score at least one goal in its next game … after back-to-back shutouts to open the year, the Revs have responded with at least one goal in their next game following a clean sheet … most recently, following a 0-0 finish at Kansas City on July 21, the Revs responded with a goal at Philadelphia on Sunday.

CLYDE DONS THE ARMBAND FOR A FOURTH TIME
Veteran Clyde Simms has served as the team's captain in four of the team's last five games in place of Shalrie Joseph, who had missed all or parts of those games before being traded on Wednesday ... in the July 8 match against New York, Simms served as team captain for the first time as a member of the Revolution … it marked the first time since May 15, 2010 (Cory Gibbs), that a Revolution player other than Joseph or Matt Reis wore the captain's armband ... Simms then served as captain on July 14 at Montreal and July 21 at Kansas City before donning the armband again on Sunday at Philadelphia.

STRIKE FIRST AND GOOD THINGS WILL HAPPEN
Sunday's 12th-minute goal at Philadelphia marked the 10th time the Revs scored first in a match ... when scoring first, the Revs are 4-3-2 … however, in the 10 games in which the Revolution's opponent scores first, New England is 2-7-1 … worse yet, the Revs are 0-5-0 on the road when their host scores first, but 2-1-0 at home when their visitors strike first ... Sunday night's loss at Philadelphia was the first time since May 5 at Salt Lake that the Revs struck first on the road and lost.

SOARES, TIERNEY AND REIS PUTTING IN THE MINUTES
Of the 26 Revs players who've appeared in a game this season, only three players have played at least 90 percent of the minutes ... A.J. Soares is the only player who has started all 21 matches, while Chris Tierney has made 20 starts, sitting out the season opener while serving a one-game suspension ... Matt Reis has played every minute of the 19 matches he's started this year ... after Reis, the Revs player who's play the greatest percentage of minutes is Lee Nguyen (1,683 of 1,800 minutes/89.0 percent).

Player	GP	GS	MIN of 1890	PCT of MIN
A.J. Soares	21	21	1830	96.8
Chris Tierney	20	20	1797	95.0
Matt Reis	19	19	1710	90.4

ROAD LOSSES CUT DEEP
In the last two games, three Revolution players have required postgame stitches to close cuts inflicted in tough games on the road ... Stephen McCarthy needed six stitches following a stoppage-time collision in Philadelphia ... a week earlier in Kansas City, Matt Reis needed 12 stitches following a stoppage-time collision with Kei Kamara, while Darrius Barnes needed six for a first-half collision with Kamara ... immediately following initial bandaging, all three players returned to the field to compete and then underwent the minor surgical procedure after in the athletic training room.

REFLECTIVE AND CRITICAL
Sunday night's 90th minute goal-against marked the third time the Revs have conceded a game-winning goal after the 75th minute ... despite it costing the team a crucial point, it was the first time since April 14 (2-1 loss against D.C.) the Revs allowed a goal in that time window ... after the game, Jay Heaps commented on the loss at Philadelphia:"I think we need to take a hard long look at ourselves, but at the same time look at the negatives and look at the positives, adjust and move forward."

A TALE OF TWO TEAMS
Any observer can see the Revs are a different team from the one that took the field a year ago, and it stems from new head coach Jay Heaps' attacking mantra ... a look at the team comparisons from the 2011 squad and the 2012 squad - through 21 games - tells the story a team this year that attacks, pushes the game and goes all out:

Category	2012	2011
Record	6-10-5	4-9-8
Goals	26	19
Assists	22	15
Goal Differential	-1	-10
Shots on Goal	119	70

JAY HEAPS FACTS & FIGURES
Jay Heaps, 35 (and turning 36 on Thursday, August 2) is the sixth head coach in club history, and is also the second-youngest active coach in MLS (behind D.C. United's Ben Olsen) … Heaps had a nine-year playing career in MLS, first with the Miami Fusion beginning in 1999 - when he was drafted second overall in the MLS College Draft before earning MLS Rookie of the Year honors that season - through June 2001 ... he was traded to his hometown club, New England, in June 2001 where he concluded his career before retiring following the 2009 season … Heaps is second all-time in minutes (21,619) appearances (243) and starts (238).
